

Measures to for Support Small-Scale Fishing

GREECE

Mapping the current situation Survey Preliminary Results Fisheries Associations Fishermen

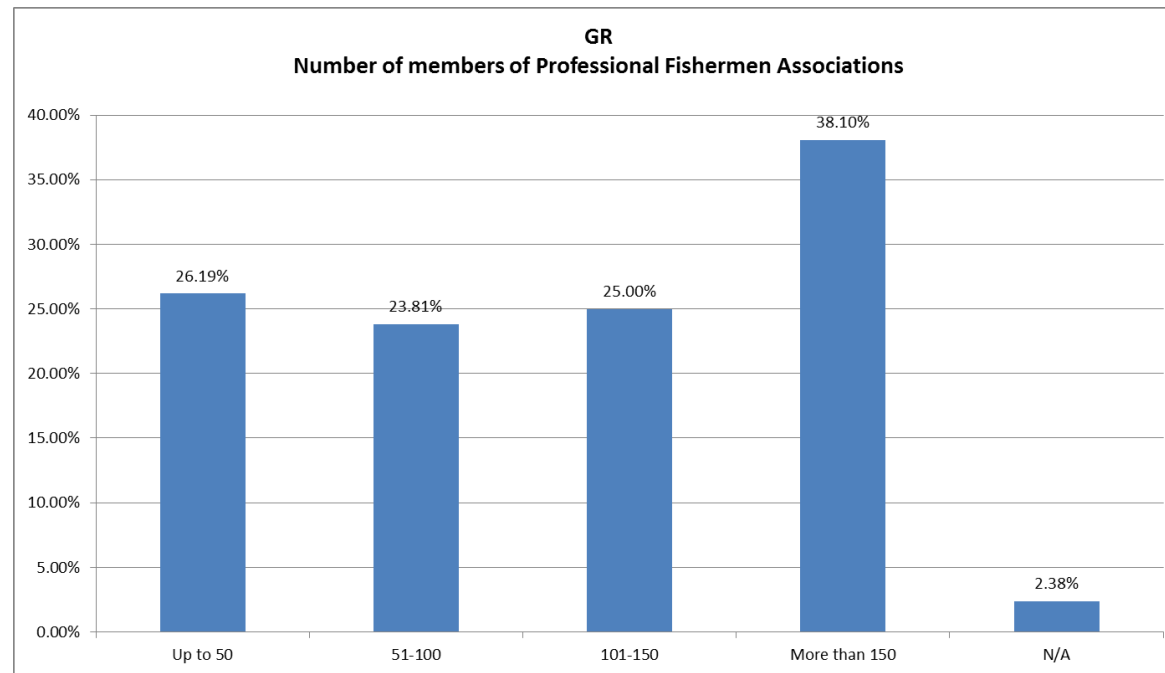

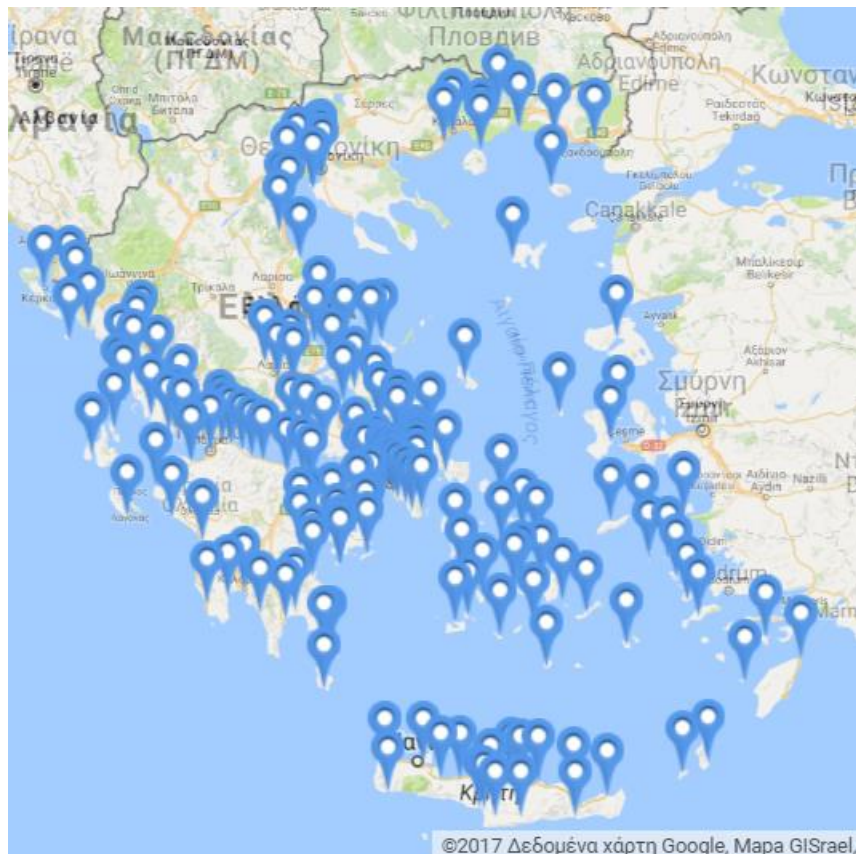

The project has received funding from the European Union's under grant agreement No MARE/2014/04 – SI2. 723876. The Commission is not responsible for the information of this publication.

Mapping the current situation

Fisheries associations

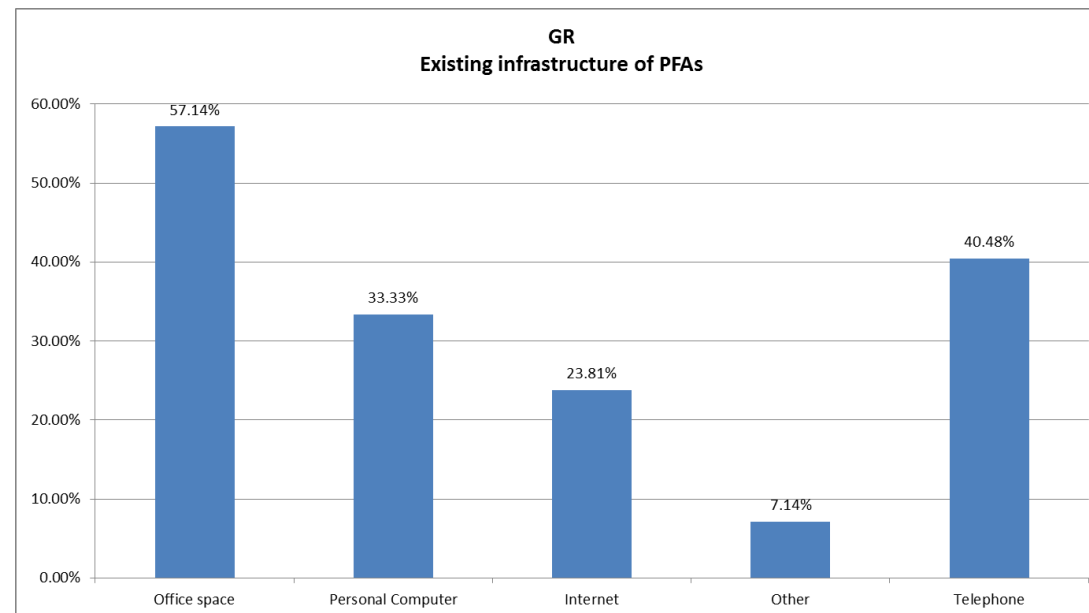

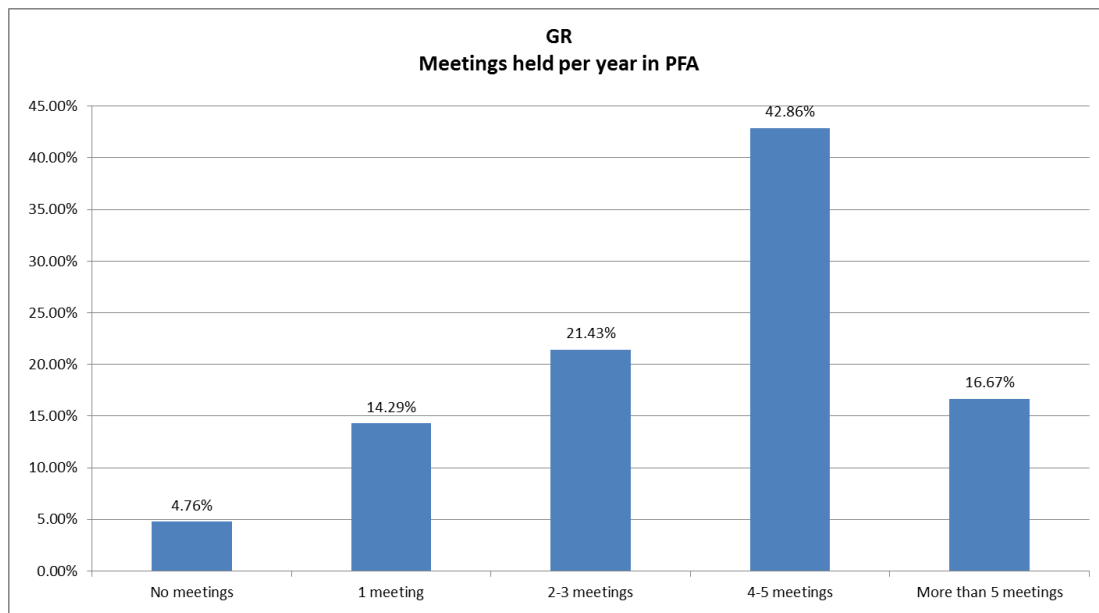

190 Fisheries Associations

Only 38% of them has more than 150 members

Mapping the current situation

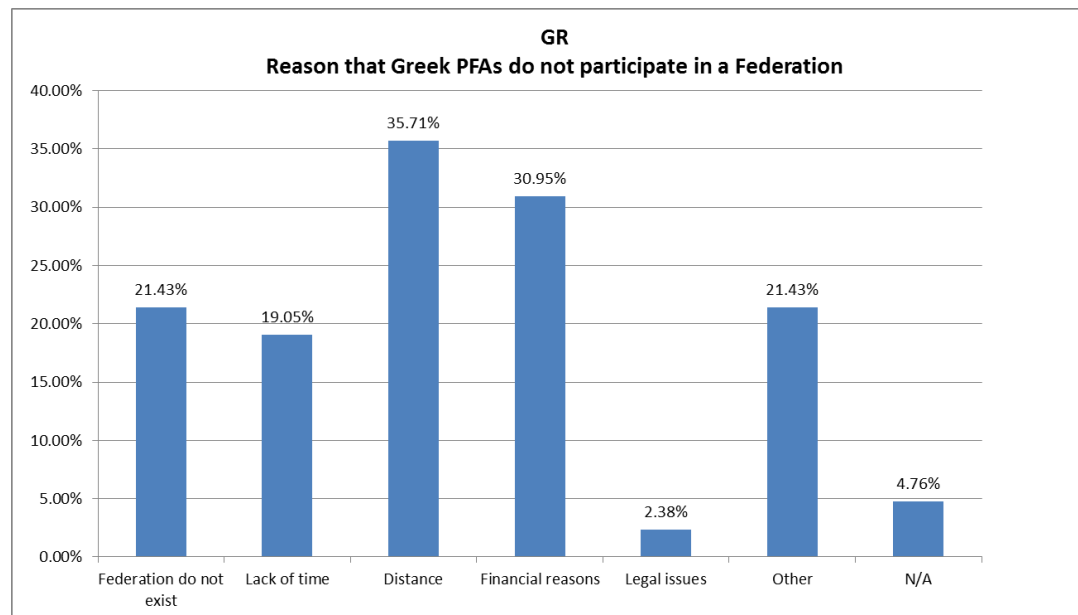

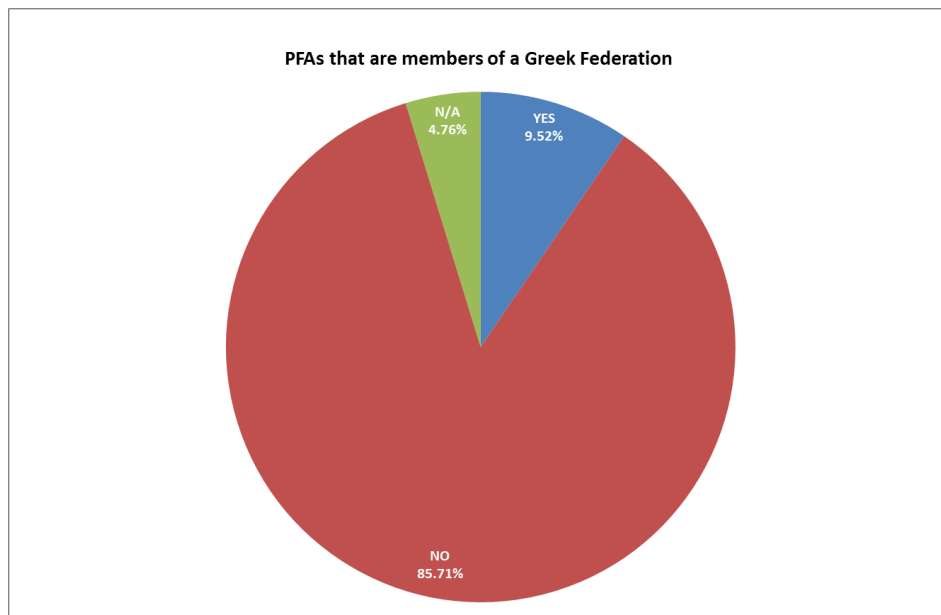

Fisheries associations

Mapping the current situation

Fisheries associations

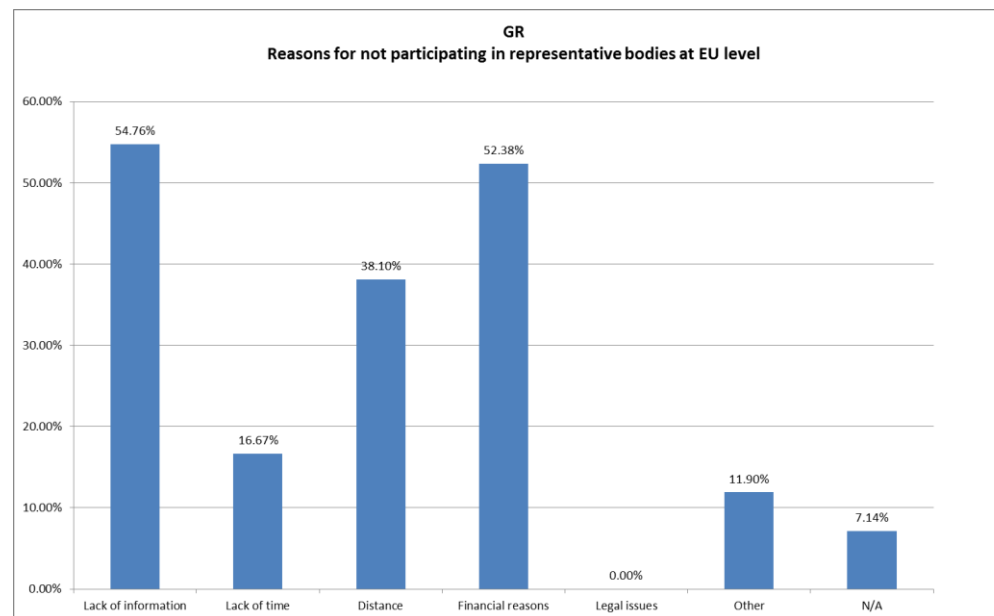

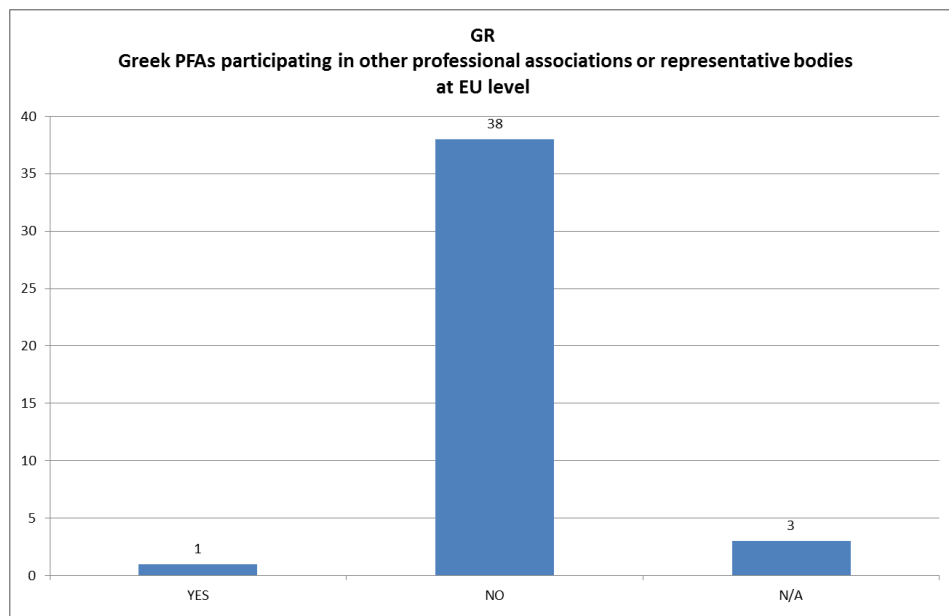

Main information channels are the Department of Fisheries and the Port Authorities. Third is internet

Mapping the current situation

Fisheries associations

Only 24% is aware of the Mediterranean Advisory Council

Only 14% is willing to pay subscription to participate at EU representation bodies

Mapping the current situation

Fisheries associations

Main issues of the Associations

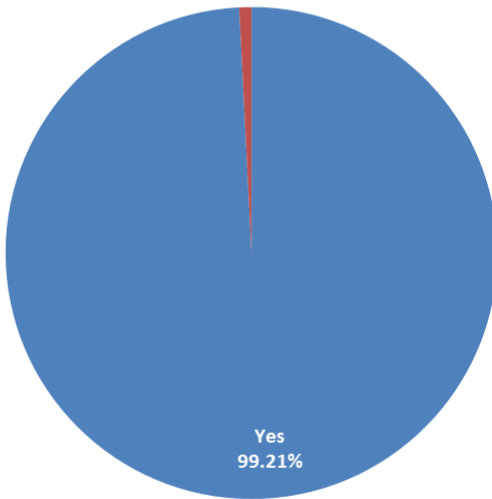

- Financial issues
- Legislative issues
- There is no sufficient representation at a National Level
- They have lost trust to EU bodies and to representation platforms

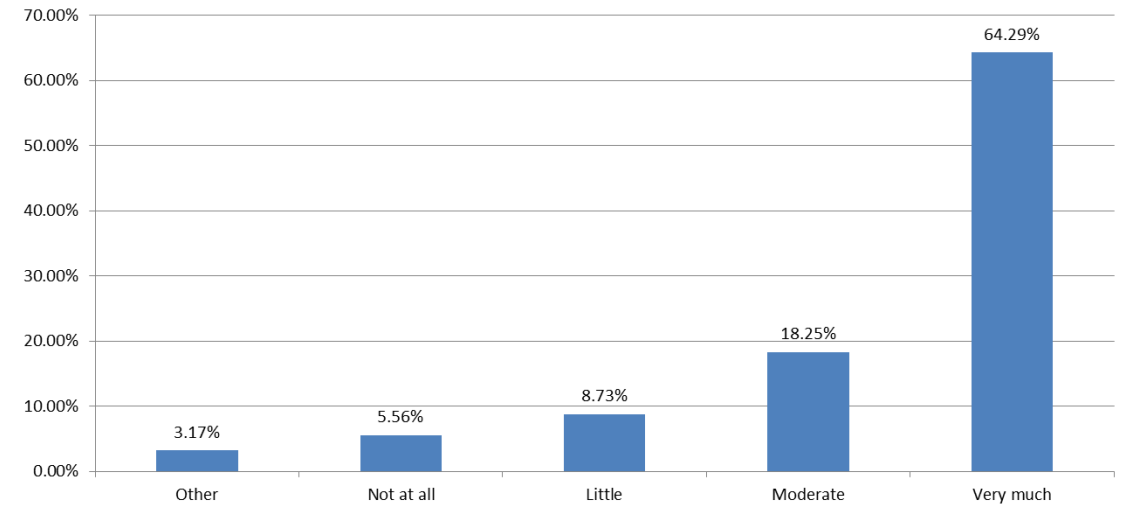

Mapping the current situation

Fishermen

Member of Professional Association

GR
Satisfaction from the way the PFA represents the members

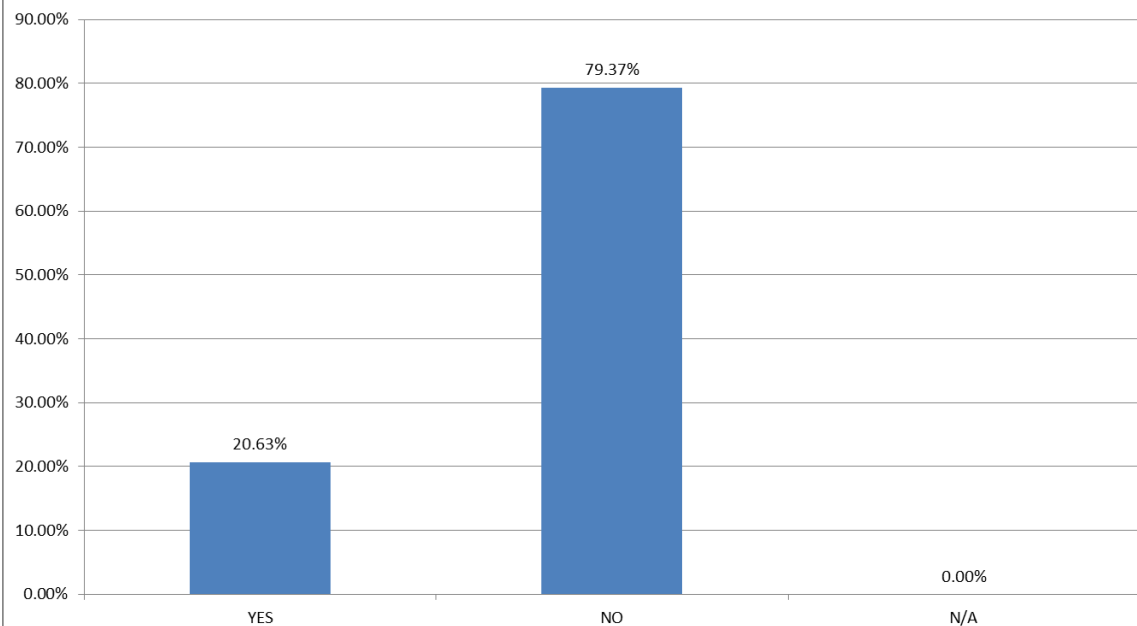

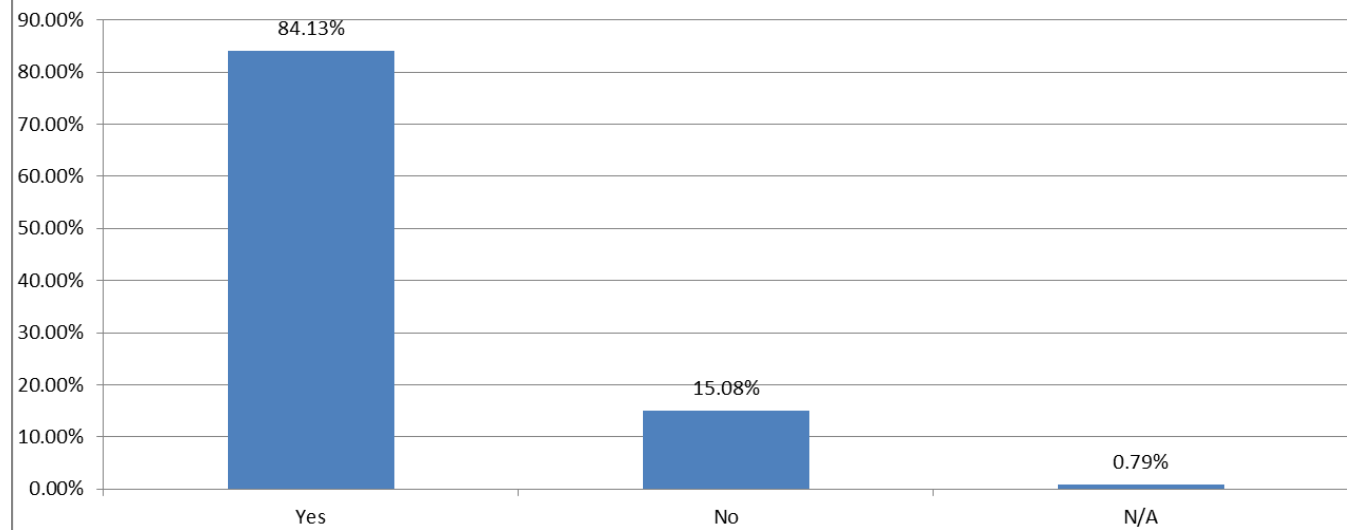

Mapping the current situation

Fishermen

GR
Fishermen know of the existence of MEDAC

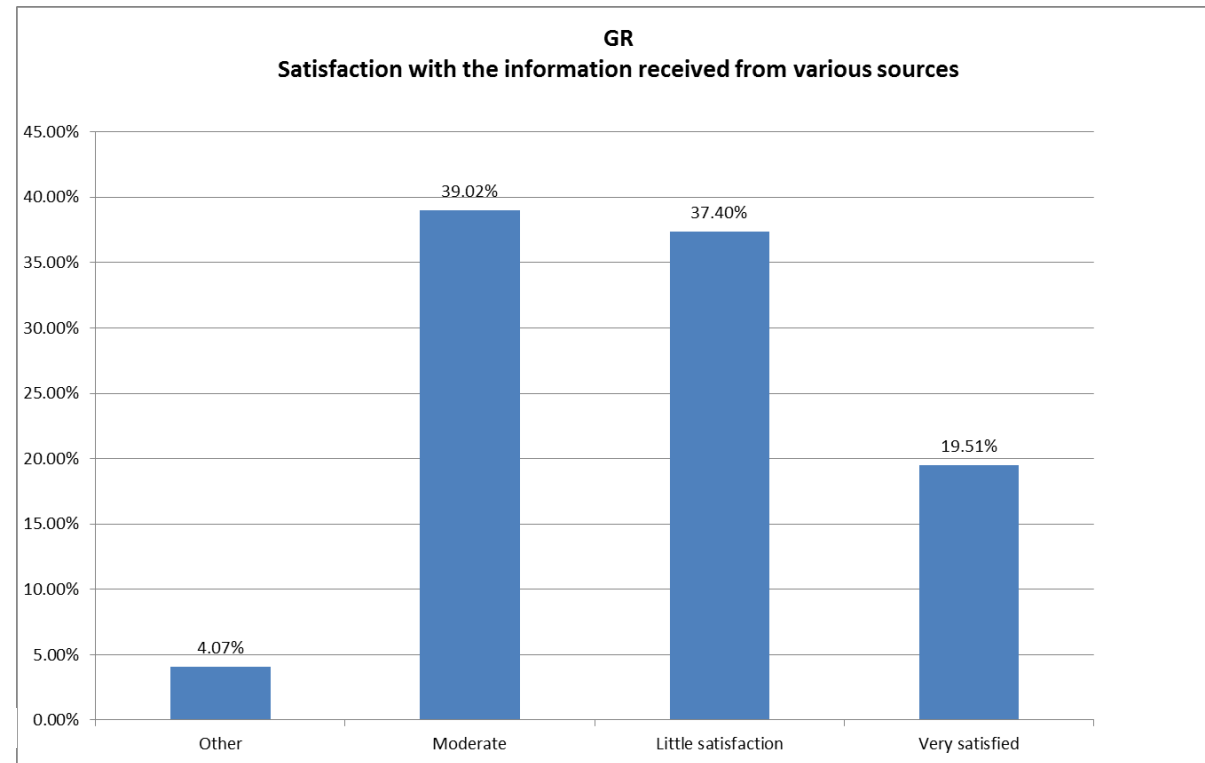

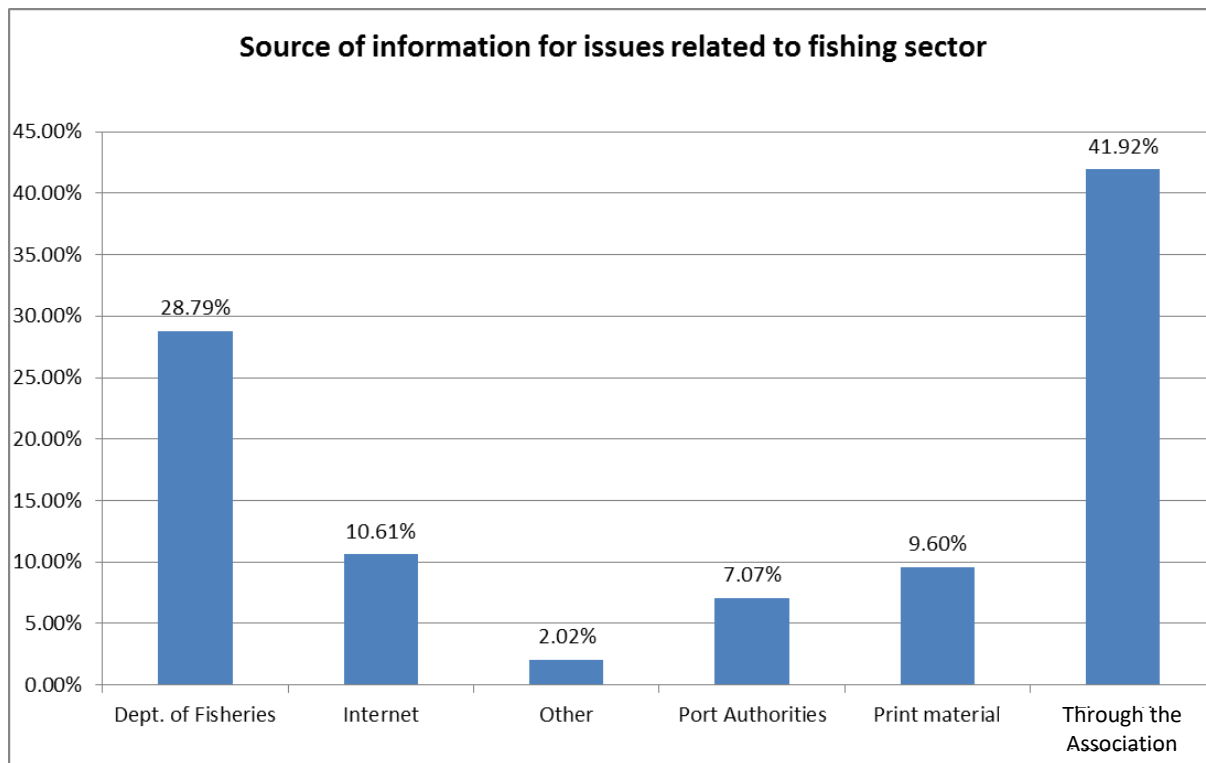

GR
MEDAC can contribute towardw the improvement of technical measures

Mapping the current situation

Fishermen

Mapping the current situation

Fishermen

Subjects of particular importance to your sector

- Recreational fishing
- Conflicts with other stakeholders (recreational fishermen, divers, fish farms)
 - Overfishing
 - Too much regulation
- A number of local and technical issues

With regards to their representation

- No centralised representation
- They are satisfied at a local level by their Cooperatives but not at a National level
 - Government is not taking into account their problems

Measures to for Support Small-Scale Fishing

GREECE

THANK YOU!